How familiar are you with the Edmonds in Bloom tour, or with any other big (300+ attendees) garden tour?

Have you ever attended an Edmonds in Bloom Tour?  Yes  No

Have you volunteered for an Edmonds in Bloom Tour?  Yes  No

I am responding to a letter from the GT Selection Coordinator

I would like to be contacted by the Garden Tour Garden Advisory Committee to find out how to prepare my garden for a Garden Tour.

Why would you like to be on the garden tour?

What years is the garden available for the tour (check all that apply)?

- 2025 - Historical Tour (house must be at least 100 years old)
- 2026
- 2027
- 2028

Is there any possibility that your house might be sold before the desired year{s} indicated above?

ABOUT YOUR GARDEN

What is the age of your garden?

- 1-2 year old
- 3-9 years old
- 10+ years

Please describe your garden:

Are there any features or qualities about your garden that you would like to share?

Tell us about the history of you and your garden.

Do you have major construction or landscape projects planned for the next 2 to 12 months?

If applying for 2025 Historical Tour,
When was your house built?

Is it on the historical registry?

What is the history of your house, if you know?

Do you have any questions for us?

Scan and email the form to gardentour@edmondsinbloom.org or mail it to Edmonds in Bloom, Attention Garden Selection, 700 Main St, Edmonds, WA 98020.

This application is an indication of your interest in being a host on the Garden Tour, not a commitment by the applicant or Edmonds in Bloom. Garden Tour hosts are confirmed in the summer/fall before the next year's tour.

What you can expect next:

- The Garden Tour (GT) Selection Committee will consider your application and do a drive-by of your garden.
- The GT Selection Coordinator will contact you to arrange a time to view your garden.

If applying for the next Garden Tour year

- After their visit, you will be contacted as to the status of your application.
- The coordinator will arrange a time for the Garden Tour Committee to visit the garden.
- The coordinator will contact you as to the acceptance status.

If applying for a couple of years out

- After visiting your home, we will provide instruction and advice in preparing for being a Garden Tour Host. You may ask for a garden advisor to contact you.
- We will connect with you via email a couple of times a year in the years leading up the year of your desired tour date.
- The year before the desired tour date will revisit your garden and follow the process for the next Garden Tour.
